Mr. Jeff Becker

MR. PERSONALITY

We are more than proud to dedicate the 1979 edition of the Calumet to Mr. Jeff Becker. We realize that it is highly irregular to dedicate a yearbook to its advisor, especially since the staff two years before us did exactly this, but everyone concerned agreed that Mr. Becker was the only person to be considered. Without his presence, our staff would have never accomplished the task of putting together this yearbook; it would have seemed too great a feat to even attempt. But together, we pulled through the drudgery of writing copy and the helplessness of ruined pictures. With his reassurance and his helping hand (not to mention his way with words) we built up our confidence and determination to see it through.

During the last school year and the beginning of this one, Mr. Becker was forced to frequently leave his job due to illness, and we truly worried about him and his family. His absence was felt by his students and his fellow teachers alike. That friendly smile with its "Hi!" just was not there, and a vague, disappointing loneliness settled in. Faces definitely perked up, however, as soon as he returned, and "work" resumed as usual.

We hope that we will never need to feel this way again, so here's to the rest of your teaching years at Susquehannock, Mr. Becker — may they be memorable!

"THE TIMES OF YOUR LIFE"

GOOD MORNING YESTERDAY

*You wake up,
And time has slipped away*

And suddenly it's hard to find the memories you've left behind

*The laughter and the tears,
the shadows
of misty yesteryears*

The good times and the bad you've seen and all the others in-between

*Reach out for the joy and the sorrow.
Put them away in your mind*

A black and white photograph of a desk. In the background, a calendar is visible with dates 4, 5, 6, 11, 12, 13, 18, and 19. A cup of dark liquid, likely coffee, sits on the right. In the center, there are two crumpled pieces of paper. In the foreground, a clear plastic container of Bayer Aspirin is lying on its side, spilling white tablets onto a document below it. The document appears to be a class roster or attendance sheet, with names like 'Graham, Mark', 'Hershner, Bruce', 'Jurek, Sally', 'Jurek, Debbie', 'Jurek, Cindy', 'Jurek, Kim', 'Jurek, Keith', 'Jurek, Paul', 'Jurek, Karen', 'Jurek, Todd', 'Jurek, Errol', 'Jurek, Grace', 'Jurek, Kimberly', 'Jurek, Mark', 'Jurek, Keith', 'Jurek, Crystal', 'Jurek, Susan', 'Jurek, Vicki', and 'Jurek, Jan' visible. The Bayer Aspirin label is clearly visible, showing the brand name and 'FAST PAIN RELIEF'.

BUSES & BEANS

Where would any school be without those industrious people behind-the-scenes? Those friendly ladies in the kitchen see to it that well-balanced meals are always ready for a famished mob stampeding down the stairs. And at the end of a long hard day, our good-natured busdriver waits to take us home.

MAINTAINING ORDER

Those diligent men and women who shoulder the many responsibilities needed in order for our school to function smoothly, are vital employees in our school district. Under Mr. Beaverson, who is in charge of maintenance for all three schools, the custodial staff repairs machinery, and works day and night to keep our halls and classrooms presentable. Their various jobs enable any visitors to our school to view it as clean and well kept.

SPORTS

PERSEVERANCE!

Many long, hard hours of practice were put forth at camp and after school to produce a football team that we could be proud of. Their victories and losses were shared by the entire student body who supported them at every game.

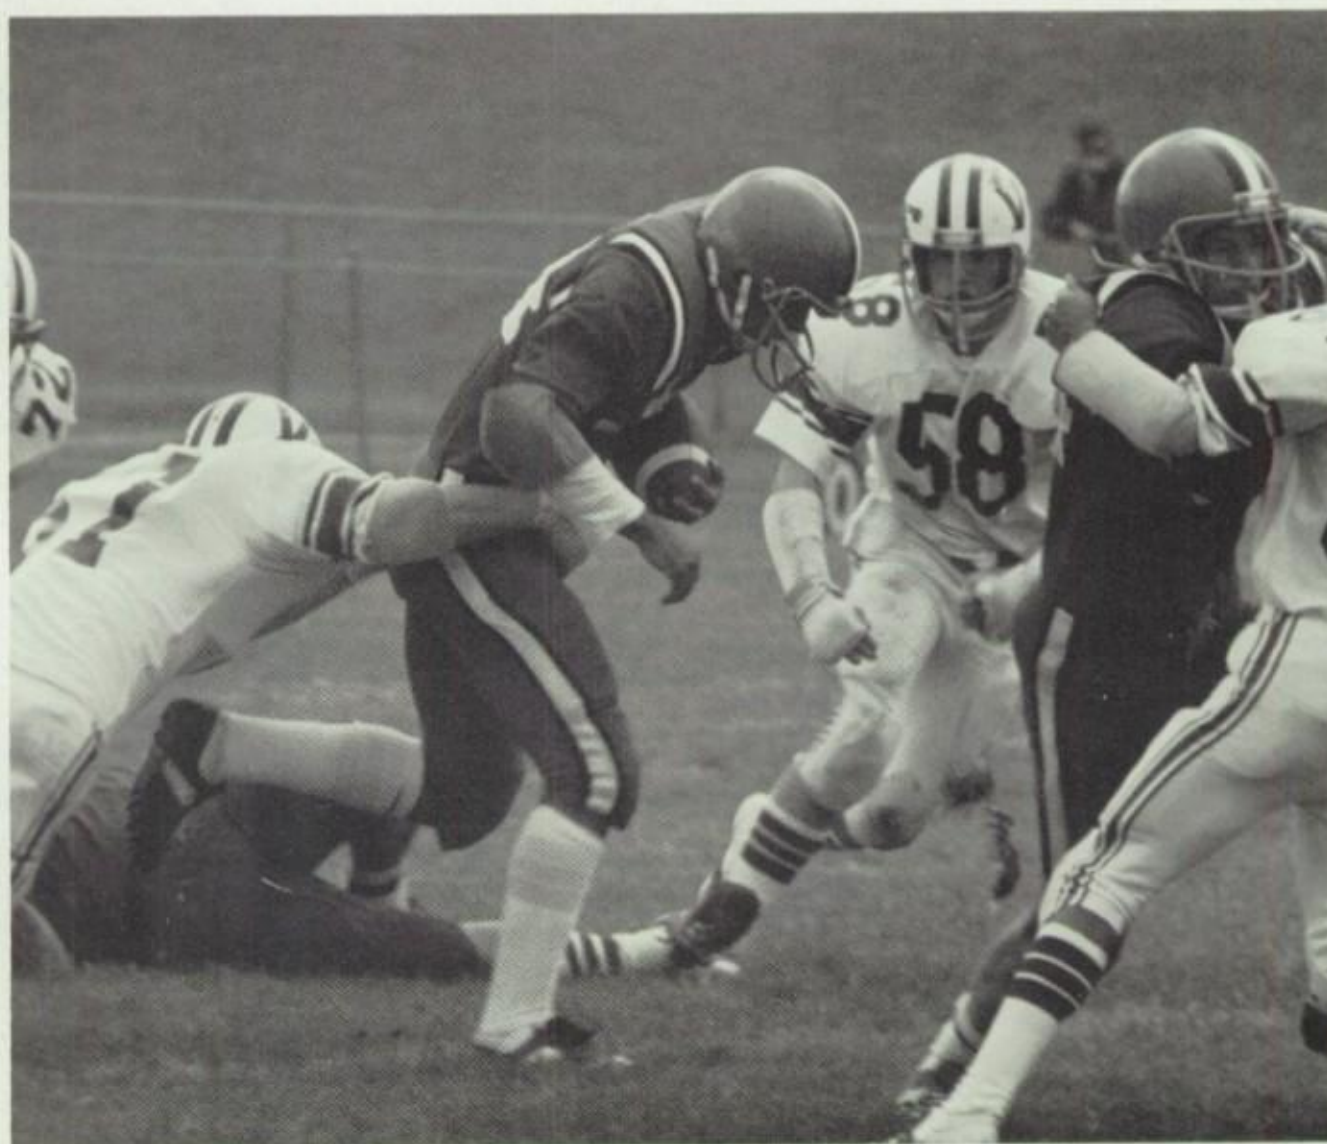

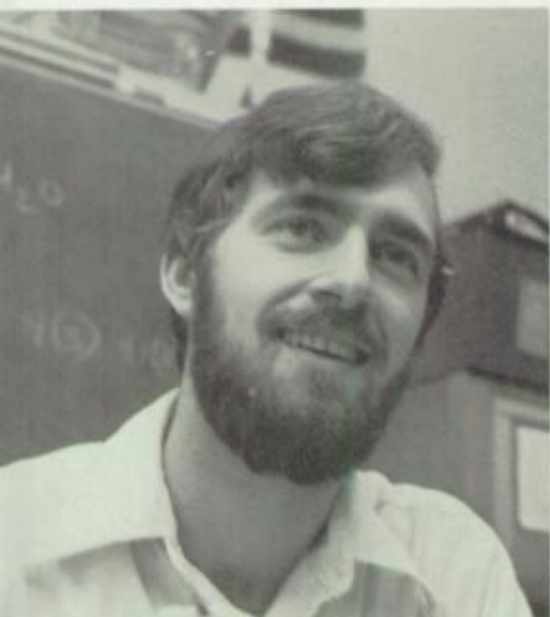

Under the guidance of head coach Blough, the boys were taught a game plan which stressed basic fundamentals and execution. The assistant coaches, Trimmer and Gerba, provided a standard of leadership and excellence for the team to follow.

An optimistic outlook was followed by a disappointing season as injuries eliminated key personnel. The future SHS football teams may be better if the underclassmen develop to their fullest and a winning attitude can be maintained.

SHS GOLFERS

In our usual form, SHS has produced another fantastic golf team this year. The team ended the season by capturing second place in their division. John Lowder, Tim Shearer, and Kevin Krom qualified to play in the District Rounds, and John advanced to the State Qualifying Rounds. Susquehannock is proud of its team's successful achievements.

Susquehannock High School has come to expect a successful field hockey team. Once again we were not disappointed as the girls completed a 12-2 season. Advancing to the second round of Districts, a discouraging loss shattered their high hopes. However, we appreciate the many memories they gave us.

Gaining experience and learning fundamentals are the jobs of any junior varsity team. Our J.V. field hockey team proved this point by completing a very successful season under Coach Nease. An excellent record provided many thrilling moments and few disappointments. Our winning tradition at the varsity level is a direct result of our excellent J.V. program.

Under the guidance of Mr. Gerba and Miss Fowler, both girl's basketball teams struggled to gain respectability. Stressing conditioning, teaching new plays, and providing leadership, the two first year coaches maintained a winning attitude as the team tied the season record for most wins. Led by senior Teresa Derksen, who ended up fifth in the county in scoring, our girls showed a vast improvement in basic fundamentals.

Even though one win does not make a season, their lone victory boosted morales which had been down at that time. Their effort did not pay off this year, but perhaps it will provide the basis for a more triumphant team.

HOLDING THEIR OWN

Basketball is generally referred to as a tall man's sport, but our players were constantly burdened with a lack of height. The SHS varsity team made up for this handicap through sheer hustle and determination. Through the floor leadership of John Lowder, the rebounding of Ronnie Erdmanmand, Al Tomasic, and the bench relief of Greg Deuel and Doug Reimold, they functioned unselfishly to produce a total team effort. The experience gained from underclassmen should provide the nucleus for next year's team.

FUTURE TALENT

The basketball future of SHS is bright based on the talent and the size of the J.V. team. Quickness, tallness, and positive attitudes combined together to create an exciting team. Each player's contagious enthusiasm has our school anxiously awaiting the upcoming season.

The run and gun, fast-breaking style of our ninth grade team proved very effective and crowd-pleasing. Their successful season was shown by their 8 and 6 record.

DETERMINA- TION LACKS REWARD

Even though the boys practiced nearly every night preparing themselves for the upcoming match, defeat seemed to be their destiny. Moments of pain and agony, such as aching muscles and mat burns, and days of near starvation trying to make weight, coupled with a positive attitude, left the SHS varsity wrestling team with a disappointing and unrewarding season.

A general lack of self-confidence, untimely injuries, and inexperience were the main pitfalls which led up to a very poor record for the season.

JUNIOR MATMEN

Due to the forfeit of many weight classes, the JV wrestling team was constantly forced to overcome large point deficits. Plagued by a small turnout, Coach Cope was limited in his selection of wrestlers to fill the individual weights. But together they worked to build experience and skills needed for future seasons.

The ninth grade squad enjoyed a more successful season, possibly providing us with a strong foundation for next year.

AN S.H.S. TRADITION

Our expectations for another great volleyball team were not disappointed. The girls here at Susquehannock have always put together a terrific squad and this year presented no exception. Under the direction of Coaches Baer and Adams, the team went on to add another successful season to the long list of which we can all take pride.

WE'VE GOT THE SPIRIT!

Any good cheerleader knows that her job is to spread enthusiasm not only throughout the audience, but also the team for which she is cheering. During those tense moments near the end of a close game, the cheerleaders provide a method of release for the onlookers, by allowing them to shout right along. A few new cheers mixed in with those old familiar favorites enliven the event, no matter what it might be. Without these girls who practice constantly for perfection but who can laugh at their mistakes, that game or match would definitely seem very hum-drum.

ORGANIZA- TIONS

THE MARCHING WARRIORS

"Atten-hut! Forward march!" was the familiar cry which opened each program presented by the 1979 Marching Band. Behind every show was many exhausting hours of practicing new routines or reviewing those already learned. Members did not allow conflicts between themselves to interfere with performances, but strived to overcome them. And of course there was the traditional matter of initiating the freshmen, a pleasant task for the upperclassmen. All in all, their complicated opening and half-time programs were delightful for anyone who took the time to watch.

ENTHUSIASM IS THE KEY . . .

However, football games were not the only places one might find our band. The usual parades permitted them to take a break from monotonous rehearsals, even though they were often more tiring than anticipated. Members were also busy selling, selling, selling, trying to help finance their annual trip which was to be something special this year — Montreal!

This year's Colorguard worked out with the majorettes something different — a dance routine highlighted one of their half-time performances. They also found a new advisor in Miss Lehman, who aided them in putting together a rewarding season as they executed various flag and gun drills. Co-Sergeants Candy Landis and Marie Piermatteo led the squad through blistering heat and freezing cold temperatures, but the girls persevered.

BAND EXTRAS

New outfits and shiny batons adorned the majorettes throughout their busy season. A lively dance executed in co-operation with the Color-guard sparked their performances.

Mascots Lisa Routson and Troy Winemiller added a touch of "Warrior Pride" along with Snaker.

Band managers were also found scurrying around at the games as they took orders for refreshments and swiped blankets.

N.H.S. IS ... THE ELITE

At the end of the sophomore year, N.H.S. applications are handed to every student with the necessary requirements of at least a B average and a certain number of points for participation to be chosen a member. Only a few make it this time and those who do enter the Society through the excitement of the induction ceremony. Those who do not strive during the next year so that they, too, may become part of the "cream of the crop."

MARIA

As our favorite Philippine, Maria definitely gave our school an added "oomph." She acted, she sang, and she helped manage our girl's basketball team, besides. She was not only a sister to Jean, Jan, and Dean, but to everyone who knew her. Maria somehow managed to be everyone's personal friend, and she will not be forgotten by those who loved her.

TON

That quick, neat, intellectual little person you may have noticed scuttling down our halls was Atsushi Tanaka, our resident Japanese, who was better known as Ton. A likely candidate for the senior boy most likely to succeed, he more than proved his talent in the field of knowledge. He was also involved in the senior class play and the year-book staff. We will definitely lose a cherished part of our class when Ton returns home.

RON

One of the friendliest faces you will have seen this year is that of Ron Valdez, our exchange student from the Dominican Republic. If he was not seen with his host-brother Bill Naylor, you might find him in the gym, participating in any one of the many sports in which he excelled; or enjoying the different foods we Americans consume. As an extremely active member of the senior class, Ron could usually be spotted at various school-sponsored events, adding a special touch with his warm quick smile and his terrific sense of humor. We will always remember these fun times and think of Ron with his outgoing attitudes.

LEARNING A DIFFERENT CULTURE

Although one of the main goals of A.F.S. is to bring students from far away to our school, we are also privileged enough to be able to send students to other places. Over the summer, one or two students can visit a foreign country, and each fall, one senior is sent somewhere here in the U.S. for half a year while a senior from some other state stays with us. This is an exceptional way of learning about different people and their culture and we can participate in this program.

Student Council is the organization designed so that students can give voice to their problems and opinions to the administration. Working toward a better school, they perform such tasks as operating the concession stands at football and basketball games, staging dances, and planning fun-filled events to keep the student body from being swallowed up in the everyday routine of school life.

Under the leadership of Mike Trujillo, the 1978-79 Student Council kept themselves busy making arrangements for the next up and coming happenings. Among these were a couple of successful "hat days," several contests for Homecoming, and one of the biggest projects they looked forward to, a repeat of last year's exhilarating "Gong Show." As their usual custom they topped off a year of hard work with yet another Student Council banquet.

THE COURIER STAFF

The newspaper staff has always had their work cut out for them. Attempting to meet deadline upon deadline, they worked to make each and every issue something interesting for the students. Containing creative literary and art work, controversial editorials, and factual well-written articles, the Courier was always eagerly awaited by the student body. Distribution day meant a sigh of relief for the staff and anxious anticipation by the students.

The staff members gained valuable experience working together as a group of individuals with a common goal. Under the experienced leadership of their advisor Mrs. Mack, they had a chance to demonstrate their ability in the field of journalism.

PRESERVING YOUR MEMORIES . . .

How do you capture the memories of an entire school year on the pages of one publication? This is the problem that faces any yearbook staff. The Calumet staff accepted this challenge with determination and confidence which led to hours upon hours of perseverance during those few weeks just before each deadline. Among their necessary chores were cropping pictures, erasing layers of carbon on Quad-Paks, fighting for cropping pencils, screaming at unco-operative croppers, misplacing pictures beneath a mountain of dummy sheets, and finally lengthy hours of proofreading pages to be sent to the publisher.

Although some students see a position on the yearbook staff as being glamorous and allowing one plenty of free time, these same people do not realize the time and effort involved in producing that book which everyone complains about paying so much for. Each staff endeavors to better the one before, and this year's staff found that they had their work cut out for them. Hopefully the 1979 edition of the Calumet has proven worthy of our expectations.

Homecoming is a very important time here. Spirit soars, smiles flash, and each class tries to show "We're #1."

Many long hours of planning and hard work were put in to decorating our school. The junior class once again produced the winning float, while the seniors took first place with their hall. "Rowdiness" continued throughout the week, but working together served to pull the classes closer, as the weekend drew near. Everyone who participated will long remember the fun and happiness.

IRISH FEVER

Although the Senior Class Play, "McGillicuddy McGotham," was not as big a hit as their venture the year before, the cast would probably agree that it was just as much fun working together once again. Through Mr. Ruth's familiar cry of "Come on, come on, let's go!" they worked on memorizing lines and learning stage directions. Though there was nearly always someone late, absent, or not-to-be-found, the seniors did a fine job of pulling together an enjoyable, if not financially astounding evening for all who attended.

GO AHEAD AND "ASK ANY GIRL"

The comedy "Ask Any Girl" was presented by the Junior class on April 27, 28. Much dedication, effort, and time was displayed by each of the cast members during the weeks before production. Stage nights brought nervousness and butterflies, which soon left as student and character merged into one. Their first attempt at the dramatical area of the arts proved to be quite successful.

"Come Sail Away" provided the theme for the Junior-Senior Prom of 1979. The juniors worked diligently for two days and nights so that they could proudly present the seniors with an enjoyable evening of memories tinged with romance. Amidst the drifting melodies of the Dave Winter Group, blinking beacons, and haunting clipper ships, couples danced throughout the warm June evening. Refreshments were made complete by a beautifully decorated sheet cake bearing the evening's theme in shades of blue and aqua. This, one of the last few times for all to be together, was an event not soon to be forgotten.

A FUNNY THING HAPPENED

After the wearing emotional excitement of graduation, the seniors were chauffeured to a world of Roman emperors and Italian delicacies. The parent planned an entire night of food, film, and fun, as Bon Air Country Club was converted into a forum. The entertainment consisted of dancing to a live band, a session by the Stage Band, swimming, games, door prizes, a Jerry Lewis movie, and always, food. It was a fine way for the senior class to spend its very last time together.

LIKE
MADE IT*

There you are, looking just the same as you did last time I touched you.

And here I am, close to getting tangled up inside the thought of you.

Do you love him as much as I love her,
and will that love be strong when old feelings start to stir.

Looks like we made it,
left each other on the way to another love,
Looks like we made it,
or I thought so 'til today, until you
were there, everywhere, and all I could taste
was love the way we made it.

Love's so strange, playing hide and seek with hearts and always hurting.
And we're the fools, standing close enough to touch
those burning memories.
And if I hold you for the sake of all those times,
Love made us lose our minds, could I ever let us go?

Oh no we've made it,
left each other on the way to another love,
Looks like we've made it,
or I thought so 'til today, until you
were there, everywhere, and all I could taste
was love the way we made it.

Oh we made it all the way.

Barry Manilow

Keith, thanks for letting me have my firehall this year! Luv ya! Lisa Throughout our school years, many times our friends and classmates were an inspiration to us. Often, the only way we managed to get up in the morning was to think of those familiar smiling faces. We changed old friends for new ones or added to the list of our favorite people. Each time a new student moved into our school, we wondered which crowd would adopt him or her.

However, circumstances were sometimes reversed. Friends were forced to leave us for some reason or another, and their absence left a tender spot in our hearts. These special people could never be replaced; the best that we could hope for was the chance to see them again on a return visit. But, when a few of our classmates left us, we were not given even this chance. Though we will never see them again, we can remember them as they were, remember the happy times we shared together.

*In memory of Ed Slagle, Dave Wholaver, and George Miller, a part of our class which cannot ever be replaced, but will always be with us.

I wish to extend my thanks to the following:

Mr. Blatner and photographers Ed and Al, for doing a terrific job on the photography end of this yearbook.
Mr. Ed Patrick, for helping with all the technicalities.
Mrs. Shultz and Miss Fowler, for filling in while Mr. Becker was gone and for being there — just in case.
Mrs. Bupp, for aiding Mike Summers and myself during the ad campaign.
Mr. Linnane, for giving me his encouragement and for worrying when he shouldn't have had to.
All the janitors, for allowing me to interrupt their work to unlock a door for me.
The Coke machine in the faculty room, for providing badly needed refreshment.
The entire faculty, who was constantly indisposed by an announcement calling students from the middle of class. (Sorry about that!)

The Calumet staff, who made this yearbook possible — especially those of you who did more than your share. (I think you know who you are.)

And mostly, Mr. Jeff Becker, for being himself.

Ever so sincerely,
Lisa Routson,
Editor-in-Chief
